WEEK OPENS WITH PLENTY MACKEREL

FLEET LANDED 300,000 POUNDS
YESTERDAY AND TODAY.

The week opened with plenty of fresh mackerel, no less than 11 seiners with 300,000 pounds of large mackerel waiting to take out.

Capt. John Barrett landed a fare over at the Booth Fisheries Company Saturday afternoon, the gang dressing their own fish. This morning two fares of a total of 18,000 pounds were taken by the Producers Fish Company for shipment, while the remainder of the receipts were divided among the local dealers to salt. Two fares of fresh fish arrived from the grounds this morning for the General Seafoods corporation, the Boston trawler William J. O'Brien having 100,000 pounds, and the dragger Herbert Parker reporting in with 70,000 pounds. The Geraldine and Phyllis unloaded 70,000 pounds at the Seafoods late Saturday.
